COMMUNITY AMBASSADORS

Getting to Know Aric Hanna!

By: Stacey Bradley, Case & Associates

This guy probably isn't a stranger to anyone...but just in case he is- Meet Aric Hanna!

Aric Hanna has been with Metro Appliances for the last three years but has been in the apartment industry for ten. Aric has always been in the sales industry in some way, however he has truly enjoyed the time he has spent in the apartment industry the most!

His favorite part of the industry are the relationships that he has built over the years and Aric truly honors and cherishes these relationships. His favorite part of his job is maintaining those relationships. Aric isn't a huge fan of delivering fridges, but he always makes sure his customers are taken care of and the residents are happy.

When Aric first joined the AAGW with a previous company, he only attended a few events and wasn't very involved. Over time, the more Aric got involved, the more Aric got out of it and he realized that being a member of AAGW is a great way to network and cultivate relationships.

Aric truly has taken his involvement in the AAGW to new heights. Aric has been on the Board for two years. He is also an ambassador, which is why many of you are familiar with his smiling face when he drops off your newsletters! Aric is also the Committee Chair for Maintenance Mania, volunteers for Star of Excellence, and tries to help out in any way he can.

Even with doing all of that, Aric says that his favorite event is a toss-up between Round for Hope and Star of Excellence. He loves Round for Hope because it is a ton of fun for a great cause and Star of Excellence is a time where you get to see everyone dressed up, looking good, and to reward the best of the best!

Aric has joined the empty nester club and is a grandpa! Being grandpa is AWESOME and had Aric known it was so cool he would've skipped dad and gone straight to grandpa! In his free time Aric likes to play golf, watch sports...and play more golf!

A motto Aric tries to live by is this: Don't be perfect, be YOU! No one can be perfect, but everyone can be true to themselves.

Thank you Aric for all you do to support the AAGW!
